RETREAT OF GERMANS FROM THE AISNE INDICATED. AMERICAN HELD FOR RANSOM BY MEXICAN BANDITS.

THE GREAT WAR. GREAT FRENCH VICTORY UNNERVES THE KAISER.

Military Critics in Berlin are Warning the People to Prepare for Further Retirement in France.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The possibility of a further German retreat on the Aisne front is being discussed by military experts of the Kaiser's staff. He says the French undoubtedly will repeat the success of their ultimate success. It is well to remember that the German plan of defense does not consist of a static position, but of a series of retreats, each of which is followed by a counter-attack. The German troops on the Aisne front were unable to save guns and war material in Pinon wood in the face of the French attack and withdrew behind the Oise-Aisne Canal near Chavignon and southeast of that town. The French attempted to cross the canal lowlands, but, according to the announcement, were thrown back everywhere. The communication follows: "Today's combats in Flanders developed into a great battle. Strong French and English attacks from Rusehede to the Ypres-Roulers Railway and on both sides of the Minin Ypres road broke down with sanguinary losses. On the Oise Aisne Canal there was slight fighting activity. "On the Italian front our corps are rapidly fighting their way forward. The number of prisoners and the amount of booty captured are increasing from hour to hour."

Press Comment.

GERMANS ARE UNEASY OVER FRENCH ADVANCE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—German newspapers are uneasy over the French advance in the direction of Sedan. Those who are not so anxious to minimize the importance of the French advance are not exaggerating the French advance. It is only an initial success. We must not forget what resistance our brilliant troops have offered to the numerically superior enemy. The Frankfurter Zeitung characterizes the battle as "painful for Germany, but not desperate," and believes France's aim is the capture of Laon.

Business of Amsinck & Co. is Taken Over by an American Firm.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 26.—Unconvincing explanations of his financial transactions by Pierre Lenoire, who, with William Desouches, was arrested Wednesday charged with trading with the enemy, caused the committee of the two men last night by Examining Magistrate Drioux, after a lengthy questioning, and consultation with the procurator-general.

The charges involve the handling of the sum of 10,000,000 francs received from Switzerland, which is asserted in newspaper reviews of the case to have been used in large part in purchasing Le Journal from its original proprietor, Henri Letailleur, before an interest in the paper was acquired by Bolo Pasha.

Before the examining magistrate Lenoire declared he had been furnished with the 10,000,000 francs by the Schoeller Company, wool merchants of Zurich, who desired to control a big French newspaper in order to safeguard Swiss economic interests in France and prepare for a trade campaign after the war.

Lenoire showed, however, according to the developments at the inquiry, that while the firm was well known and reputable, its resources were hardly such as to make such a vast expenditure on its part probable.

GOOD-BY AMINCK.
[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The importing and exporting house of G. Amsinck & Company, a concern with former German connections, which figured in the financial transactions in this country of Bolo Pasha, peace propagandist for Germany, has been acquired by the American International Corporation.

It was announced today. The active head of the house until a few months ago was Adolf Pavenschild, who testified in the investigation here of Bolo Pasha's activities that German funds had been transferred for the account of Bolo through Amsinck & Company.

G. Amsinck & Company, it was stated, had approximately 5000 trading accounts in South and Central America and its export and import business last year amounted to more than $25,000,000. This business will be used by the American International Corporation as a medium for expanding its own operations in Latin America.

LOVETT HEADS BOARD OF WAR INDUSTRIES.

FRANK A. SCOTT RESIGNS POST
BECAUSE OF ILLNESS.

Incessant Strain of War Work for Government Brought Former Chairman to Verge of Nervous Breakdown—No Change of Business Policy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Frank A. Scott's resignation as chairman of the War Industries Board, announced today, will not affect the board's policies on price fixing, quantity purchasing, priority supervision or other functions. This was made known today after Robert S. Lovett, priority director for the board, assumed the chairmanship temporarily upon the acceptance of Mr. Scott's resignation.

President Wilson will soon name a member of the board to succeed Mr. Scott, who was forced to retire because of a threatened nervous breakdown, and indications are that the chairmanship may be retained permanently by Judge Lovett, who has been vice-chairman.

Since the United States entered the war Mr. Scott has worked under strain almost incessantly, first as head of the General Munitions Board, the civilian advisory board assisting the War and Navy departments in letting contracts for war munitions, and more recently as chairman of the War Industries Board, a subsidiary of the Council of National Defense, charged with co-ordinating the vast war purchases of the American government and the Allies.

In accepting the resignation, Secretary Baker expressed great regret at the government's loss, and warmly praised Mr. Scott for his efficient service, which has been voluntary.

CARRANZA MAY SEIZE OUR MINES FOR POOR.

Large Quantity of Ammunition at El Paso Confiscated by United States Government Agents.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] EL PASO (Tex.), Oct. 26.—Two hundred thousand rounds of Mauser rifle ammunition were seized here today by government agents and army officers and taken to Fort Bliss. The ammunition was stored in a local warehouse, where it had been under guard since January.

According to these Americans, Carlin was duck hunting Tuesday when the bandits seized him. A supplementary decree has also been received saying that unless notification of the suspension of operations is given thirty days in advance the companies must pay their workers for one month after closing.

Mining companies warned. EL PASO (Tex.), Oct. 26.—American mining companies having holdings in Mexico again have been warned by the Finance Department of the Mexican government that unless mines which have suspended operations without a good reason resume operations at once these properties will be taken over by the government and worked for the benefit of the poor Mexican miners.

A supplementary decree has also been received saying that unless notification of the suspension of operations is given thirty days in advance the companies must pay their workers for one month after closing.

Neither of the bullets took effect, however, and Chief Reynolds jumped out of the window and chased the men, who succeeded in escaping. Posses under the direction of the Chief and Capt. Jake Berklime started a search of the beach cities for the assassin. It is thought that, in all probabilities, the person who fired the shots had been implicated in some violation of the law at the beach city and was in fear of apprehension by the Chief.

ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF VENICE POLICE CHIEF. Firing two shots at him while he sat with his wife reading in the living-room at his home, No. 341 Vernon avenue, an unknown person attempted to assassinate Chief of Police Bert Reynolds of Venice at midnight last night.

Mr. Hebbard immediately notified Gov. Lister of Mr. Hoover's warning and recommended that additional guards be placed at all grain elevators and stockyards.

BRITISH START ATTACK ON KEYNOTE POSITION.

BRITISH FRONT IN BELGIUM, Oct. 26.—Two separate attacks were launched today over the mud fields of Flanders. The Entente troops attacked at dawn and were making excellent headway in the first hour of the offensive. The British and French forces, working in conjunction, were pushing forward along a wide front extending from a point not far from St. Janshoek, westward through the southern fringe of the Houtholst forest and thence southward across the Passchendaele ridge to the region of Nieuw Wimolen.

At the same time the British attacked on a small front along the Gheluvelt ridge in the direction of the town of the same name. Thus the attack on this dominating position, which the Germans so long had feared and even had reported as taking place, has finally come off. At this hour (10 a.m.) only fragmentary reports from the line of advance are available.

The attack was begun at 5:40 o'clock, and an hour later the British were seen to be entering the pill boxes on the Bellevue spur west of Passchendaele. This position has been a nest of machine guns and in recent battles the Germans have been able to sweep the country to the west with a grueling fire that enabled them to retain their positions in the face of heavy attack.

At 7:15 o'clock the enemy concentrated a heavy artillery fire on Bellevue, but the British were still battling forward along the concrete defense.

NEW AIRCRAFT BOARD ANNOUNCED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Naval and military members of the Aircraft Board were announced today by Secretaries Daniels and Baker. President Wilson is to name a civilian chairman and two other civilian members.

The members appointed today were: Navy, Rear-Admiral Taylor and Capt. N. E. Irwin; army, Maj.-Gen. George O. Squier, Col. E. A. Deeds and Col. R. L. Montgomery.

Brig.-Gen. Benjamin D. Foulois, Col. Raynal C. Bolling and Col. S. D. Waldon will be dropped, but will continue their services in connection with airplane production.

Clinging to a narrow ledge of the building, Officers Bergman and Riley of the Metropolitan Squad early today climbed into rooms on the second story of an apartment-house at No. 1020 West Pico street, raided the place and arrested three women and four men, whom they charged with violating the liquor and rooming-house ordinance. Miss Grace ("Babe") Wilson and Elsie Payton, her colored maid, were held on the liquor charge, and Miss Pearl Davis on the rooming-house charge, as were the four men, who were Japanese. The Wilson woman was released on $100 bail, but the others were unable to furnish it and were locked up.

GIRL ATTACKED BY BILLY GOAT.

Miss Ellen Lundregan of No. 3218 East Fourth street was in the Receiving Hospital early today for emergency treatment of a possible fracture of a leg and other injuries, received when she was attacked by a large billy goat. She was crossing some lots in the "hollow," south of Stephenson avenue and Mott street, when the animal charged her. Unable to walk, the young woman lay for nearly an hour only a short distance from the home of a friend, where she was going at the time of the attack.

MILWAUKEE OVERSUBSCRIBES LOAN.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 26.—With a subscription more than $1,500,000 over the maximum allotment of $25,000,000, Milwaukee enters its last day of the Liberty Loan campaign with prospects of a total of $30,000,000, according to a statement tonight. This will be Milwaukee's answer to charges of disloyalty which have from time to time been heard throughout the nation, it was declared.

PIONEER WOMAN EXPIRES.

Following an illness of two weeks, Mrs. J. G. Bailey of No. 608 North Broadway, Santa Ana, the wife of Dr. J. Gotham Bailey, died at a late hour last night. Mrs. Bailey, who was 70 years old, had resided in Santa Ana for the past thirty years. She was born in Sincow, Can., the daughter of the late Rev. Hugh Wilson. Though she had been an invalid for two years, suffering from a complication of diseases, she was only severely ill for the two weeks prior to her death. The deceased leaves a daughter, Kassa D. M. Bailey. Her niece, Mrs. C. Hamlin, was with her at her demise. Funeral arrangements will be made today.

About Moving to Moscow.

RETROGRAD, Thursday, Oct. 25.—In connection with official reports that the Germans are withdrawing some twenty versts to new lines on the Riga front, Gen. Thorensoff, commander of the armies on the northern front, has reported to the government that the position of the Russian forces is improving. He said they had prevented a farther advance, and had secured the safety of all ways of entrance to Petrograd.

As a result of the German withdrawal, the provisional government has changed its views that the capital should be removed to Moscow immediately, and it will now proceed very slowly with the removal program.

SOLDIERS' RESOLUTIONS.
RETROGRAD, Thursday, Oct. 25.—Russian soldiers on the southern front are petitioning their councils against the plan for a meeting of the Central Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates in Petrograd on November 1. They declare the meeting of the Constituent Assembly should be postponed until after the war.

Leon Trotsky, president of the Executive Committee of the Petrograd Council of Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates, declared the soldiers' and workmen's organization hitherto had contented itself with a defensive attitude against the provisional government, but that it must now take the offensive. He accused the Provisional Government of leaving Petrograd at a moment of peril.

"The soldiers' and workmen's deputies will not leave," he concluded, "until they have secured the very death, in Petrograd, the heart of the revolution."

COUNTRY NEARS
LIBERTY GOAL.

Tremendous Drive is on to Show Results.

Total Close to the Four-billion-dollar Mark.

Final Estimates will be Delayed, Say Officials.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The Liberty Loan was gathering momentum tonight in its race to the finish.

Four hundred and thirty-five million dollars measured the day's advance and, with the total nearing $4,000,000,000, it looked as if the tremendous drive would carry it across the $5,000,000,000 line.

"One more day remains," Secretary McAdoo announced tonight.

The estimated total of the subscription stood at $3,825,000,000, admittedly a conservative figure, with indications that the total will reach $4,000,000,000.

Every available dollar is needed, officials asserted, to bring the total up to $5,000,000,000.

Throughout the country is working with redoubled energy for the last billion on the last day.

GREAT TOTALS PILE UP.
Reports from every section are rolling up tremendous totals at the treasury. At 9 o'clock tonight the estimated subscriptions of the day stood at $3,825,000,000, admittedly a conservative figure, with indications that the total will reach $4,000,000,000.

Except for Dallas and San Francisco, all districts had passed their minimum allotments and it seemed certain, the Treasury Department announced today, that the total would go well beyond their maximum.

"New York is almost certain to do so," the announcement said.

"Boston, Cleveland and Philadelphia probably will and there is hope for several others."

It is estimated that the total must, if the $5,000,000,000 mark is to be attained, for a few districts, be reached by the close of the day.

Kansas City, probably cannot reach their high quotas, though they are working relentlessly.

New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Cleveland districts, by touching their maximum quotas, would add $415,000,000 to the total.

The sight of the towers on the horizon a few miles away spurred the French soldiers to wonderful efforts of endurance and swiftness of movement.

They went on determinedly in pursuit of the enemy, leaving nothing behind to clear out cellars and caverns, which disgorged hundreds of demoralized prisoners who seemed astounded at the vastness of their defeat.

With all this severe fighting on a battlefield where the French held strong positions and where they accepted the challenge of the French army to stand-up combat, the French casualties were remarkably low.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the captives numbered 800. Enemy guns stationed on the high ground south-east of Gheluvelt, which constituted one of the main defenses of the Gheluvelt position, were comparatively quiet in the early hours, probably due to the heavy and effective bombardment conducted against them by the British artillery last night.

Many explosions were seen in the vicinity of these enemy batteries in the darkness.

The attack began in a cold rain that had been falling several hours. It has become almost trite to say that the greatest barrage yet seen was employed, but once more this was the case. The depth of the barrage fire was considerably increased and the British troops went forward behind a terrific hail of shells.

The preliminary bombardment for these attacks had been proceeding for days with the greatest intensity and the expenditure of ammunition was enormous.

The face of Paschendaele ridge and other regions have been so altered that they resemble a volcanic zone. Last night the concentrated fire was increased and the heavens were lit with a crimson glow as the great guns hurled their charges into the German lines.

The excellent preliminary bombardment was the result of remarkable work in moving the guns forward over the marsh-like terrain.

The break in the German line has done wonders in drying up the water, but the mud was still formidable and in many places there were almost impassable morasses. Notwithstanding these trying conditions, the preparations were completed.

The Germans had been expecting an attack. In fact, they thought it was being made Monday and marched their troops to the support. Later they withdrew and then these troops underwent three hours' marching each way through the deep mud.

Peace Plan.
[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
PARIS, Thursday, Oct. 25.—The national convention of the United Radicals and Radical Socialists, the strongest political organization in France, opened today with 1821 delegates present.

Louis L. Maitly, former Minister of the Interior, who was charged recently with having dealings with the enemy, was cheered loudly when he entered the convention hall.

A resolution demanding the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine "without compromise and without a plebiscite" was adopted.

Discussion of resolutions in committees indicated that the convention would pronounce in favor of an organization by the Entente Allies of such a character as to lay the foundation for a society of nations. Ferdinand Buisson, former Deputy, who is president of the League for the Rights of Man, delivered an address on this question, after which it was decided to incorporate such a proposal in the resolutions to be presented to the convention.

Armand Charpentier, another radical leader, said that a society of nations was more likely to make peace than a society of nations.

Other subjects to be discussed are "equalization of the forces of the Allies in the field and military operation of the Allies," and "the interior regime of democracy at war."

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—In revelations recently disclosed by the State Department, consuls of the German Empire in the United States have been stricken from the rolls of the American Legation.

John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, said today that German propagandists ready have arranged to spend $1,000,000 for newspaper publicity in the eight neutral countries of Latin America October 28, in event that the second Liberty Loan fails.

Mr. Barrett, who is a former Minister to Argentina, said that his information on the subject was positive and should be made known throughout the country to spur every citizen to subscribe fully to the loan.

If the loan fails, he said, the propagandists would use the fact to argue that the United States is wavering in its support of the war, that Germany is sure to win and that neutral countries would be wise not to break off relations with her.

They are all "old-time" men, and their "old-time" theory—quick returns and quick cash—has led them to believe like so many owners of claims in the mining district that they can get rich by the perpetration of their own method of extraction. They will follow out their quest from their holdings, they prepare to stick tight and resist. Just the dog in the manger. I have learned that ninety per cent. of the good people about us are in the same boat.

Styles in Full Dress, Dress overcoats and frock coats change as radically as styles.

For instance, this season's two-button cutaway frock for afternoon wear is of oxford grays in various shades, edges flat braided.

To be sure that you are correct in every detail choose the tailor that is thoroughly familiar with what is correct in style.

Benhard Gordon is such a tailor. For 31 years he has kept up with the style changes and knows what to put into formal clothes to make them comfortable, easy and dignified.

LOSES HIS BRIDE, GETS MONEY BACK.

REMARKABLE EXPERIENCES OF RICH DRAFT MAN.

Inherited Hundred Thousand,
Eloped, Gave Fortune to Wife
After Wedding Her Tutor, Separated, was Declared Incompetent, Joined Army, Got Annulment.

Having come to the conclusion that money is a curse to a young man, David Proctor Stafford decided his property to his bride, and declared to an attorney that he was the happiest man in the world. Mr. Stafford, who is the son of Attorney W. P. L. Stafford, inherited $100,000 when he was 21 years old. Several days later he eloped to Santa Ana with Miss Gladys Lyon and was married. A second ceremony was performed two days later, there being a question as to the first.

A month later the couple separated, and the following month, which was June, 1916, the groom was adjudged incompetent and Attorney Harrison M. Cassell appointed by the court his guardian. The fortune was decided to Mrs. Stafford two days after the marriage.

Judge Jackson granted Mr. Stafford an annulment of his marriage yesterday on the ground that he was of unsound mind at the time of his wedding. Neither he nor his wife were in court. Previous to filing the annulment suit, Mr. Stafford's guardians sued Mrs. Stafford to recover the property decided to her, on the ground that it was given without consideration. She replied that the consideration was a good and sufficient one, namely, love and affection.

A compromise was effected in court by which it is said Mrs. Stafford decided back to Mr. Stafford all but $15,000 of the property. Mr. Stafford was drafted into the army and is at American Lake.

FINAL PLANS FOR FOOD PLEDGE WEEK.

CHAIRMAN OF PRECINCTS TO MEET TODAY.

Orders are issued to Hundreds of Women Who will Participate in a Concerted Effort to Save National Establishments—Organization for Big Move to be Completed.

Final plans for the food pledge week campaign, which begins Monday, will be laid today at a meeting of precinct chairmen of Los Angeles, to be held at 10 o'clock at Hamburger's auditorium.

J. H. Andrews, national field representative of the United States food administration, and Charles H. Langmuir, campaign manager, will address the meeting. Mrs. J. T. Anderson, chairman of the Los Angeles unit of the Council of Defense, will preside.

"The most important thing for next week's campaign is the importance of women workers knowing how and where to report," said Manager Langmuir.

"Precinct chairmen must report daily to the precinct chairman. Precinct chairmen must report to the proper section chairman. Section chairmen must report to Mrs. Anderson, room 12, City Hall. Each worker takes the instructions from her immediate superior." Manager Langmuir will send a daily telegraphic report to Washington, and for that reason each worker should report at the close of each day's work.

SWEDEN'S LOT

Neutral's Troubles.Economic Attrition Brings Much Suffering.Country has Advantages in News Gathering.

"Sweden, although a neutral nation, has suffered fearfully from the war, and must continue to suffer until peace comes," said P. G. Norberg of Stockholm, who is visiting Los Angeles, yesterday. Mr. Norberg, who has brought to European neutrals, a news agency that is to his country what the Associated Press is to the United States, is on a visit to various American cities.

"Economic attrition, the fear of famine, and all the other conditions that war has brought to European neutrals," said Mr. Norberg, "have made our lot difficult for many months. Sweden has been neutral, and we do not know enough of the real situation to hazard an estimate of the probable outcome."

The papers served by our agency, numbering about 300, are able to give their readers perhaps a clearer idea of the real situation than any of the involve nations could. But even we do not know enough of the real situation to hazard an estimate of the probable outcome."

Mr. Norberg has been in the United States for several months, and expects to remain until January. He has spent much time in eastern and central cities, especially in Chicago, where at one time he edited a Swedish publication. His family is now in Washington.

After a short tour of western points, the Swedish News Agency, which Mr. Norberg represents, is one of the correspondents in Northern Europe of the Associated Press. Many of the dispatches carrying the "Reuters Agency" originate with the Swedish agency. It operates its own telegraph and other transmission lines and maintains bureaus in many world capitals without the boundaries of its own country.

WILL OFFERINGS TO GO TO MR. SUNDAY NOW.
Evangelist and Party to Get Receipts of Today and Tomorrow.

There are of the close of the week, the evangelistic campaign ever conducted on the coast, in which there has been a large attendance estimated at 1,200,000, the Sunday School, the Campaign Committee, the representatives of the churches, and the following statement as to the offering, that is to be made by Mr. Sunday in compensation for his labors here:

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Sunday spoke in the tabernacle on "The Temptation of Jesus." In discussing temptation, he said: "Now just get rid of the idea that you have no temptations when you become a Christian. You will, and you will be tempted in various ways. You will never get so good that you will not be tempted; but you can get so good that you will not yield to temptation."

PREACHES ON HEAVEN.
Billy's theme last night was "Heaven." He declared that it is a place, not a condition. He said, in part:

Mortality doesn't save anybody. Your culture doesn't save you. I don't care who you are or how good you are, if you reject Jesus Christ you are doomed.

God hasn't one plan of salvation for the millions and another for the hobo. He has the same plan for everybody. God isn't going to ask you whether you like it or not, whether He isn't going to ask you your opinion of His plan. There it is, and we'll have to take it as God gives it to us.

You come across a lot of fools who say there are hypocrites in the church. What difference does that make? Are you the person that is hypocrite? This is a day when you are found that out and are you fool enough to go to hell because they are going to hell? If you are, don't come to me and expect me to think you have any sense. Not at all. Not for a minute.

A good many people attend church because it adds a little bit to their respectability. That is proof positive to me that the Gospel is a good thing. This is a day when good things are counterfeited.

You never saw anybody counterfeiting brown paper. No, it is a good thing. This is a day when good things are counterfeited. This is a day when good things are counterfeited. This is a day when good things are counterfeited.

You say they counterfeit money? Certainly. A hypocrite is a counterfeit. But there is one class of these people that I haven't very much respect for. They are so good, so very good, that they are absolutely good for nothing. Simply riding the life of the world on the back of an angel. This is a day when good things are counterfeited. This is a day when good things are counterfeited. This is a day when good things are counterfeited.

They are so good, so very good, that they are absolutely good for nothing. Simply riding the life of the world on the and of your head as quickly as you can the idea that God owes you salvation.

You are mistaken in God's plan of salvation. Some people seem to think God is like a great big book-keeper in heaven and that He has a whole lot of angels as assistants. Every time you do a good thing He writes it down on one page and every time you do a bad thing He writes it down on the opposite page, and when you die He draws a line and adds them up. If you have done more good things than bad, you go to heaven; more bad things than good, you go to hell.

You would be dumfounded how many people have sense about other things that haven't any sense about religion. At times that was God's plan of redemption! Your rejection into heaven depends upon your acceptance of Jesus Christ; reject Him and God says you will be damned.

You moral men, you may be just as well off as the Christian until death knocks you down, then you are lost, because you trust in your moralities. The Christian is saved because he trusts in Jesus. Do you see where you lose out?

Not only does God promise you salvation on the grounds that you repent and accept Christ, but He offers you eternal life as a gift. Not a thing that you can earn, but salvation on the grounds of your acceptance of Jesus Christ as your Savior. He has promised to give you a home in which to spend eternity.

MUSICAL.
Recital.
OLGA STEEB'S ART.
SHE DISPLAYS SINCERITY IN HER MUSICIANSHIP.

BY JEANNE REDMAN.
Olga Steeb, the wonder-child of a few years ago, revealed herself to us last night in her recital at Trinity Auditorium, as an interpreter of the highest art of the musician, and a musician of the highest art. She re-established herself in our hearts and our minds and brought to us a full realization of her indubitable qualities as an artist. There is an atmosphere of greatness about Olga Steeb. She has an air of aloofness, of dignity and warmth which reminds me of the beloved Schumann. She is the simplest in her total lack of self-consciousness, and her palpable sincerity. There is nothing of display about her. Her art is of the simplest, purest quality.

The first number, the Bach-Busoni Prelude and Fugue in D Major, firmly established the musicianship of the pianist, and the facility of her execution. It was followed by Mozart's "Pastorale Varlee," which was played with a reverence that the old master's music demands. After these two numbers, there followed a programme remarkable for its catholicity and variety.

Olga Steeb has said that she will play for the public what it wants, as well as what she wants to give it, and she proved herself last night. It was largely a professional audience, for students, the musician, the pianist, could react to Bach, Mozart and Scarlatti's charming Capriccio, and then rise to a degree of ecstasy over Grainger and Debussy. It is hardly possible to imagine Scarlatti listening to Debussy, but we listened to both, and without a shock—only a subtle change of atmosphere, emotional and intellectual, and we found ourselves in touch both with the old forms and the new.

After Grainger's "Shepherd's Hey," which she played with delicious abandon, Steeb gave the Schumann Symphonic Etudes with force and with an artistic restraint; phrase after phrase of her rich, mellow tones in a rare interpretation of this great work, the octave passages flowing and sinuous from a lithic, purple wrist. The "Ricordanza" told the perfect story of "remembrance," its joys and sorrows, the characteristic cadenzas like pearls dropping from the tips of delicate fingers and melting into the often recurring phrases which the composer was loathe to leave.

There were two Debussy numbers—the "Minor Prelude" and the "Golliwogs' Cakewalk," with its imitations of ragtime syncopation. The programme closed with the Gounod "Liszt waits for the Countess," which was played with a grace and a beauty that was a reminder of the old abbe did not concern himself in vain with his transcriptions.

Overburdened with flowers, Olga Steeb led the stars, having maintained through a simple dignity and a certain self-effacement which was a great delight to her audience.

Fifty Years Between These Pictures.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Shenk, Parents of Judge John W. Shenk and themselves noted figures in the religious world. The top picture is a tintype taken at the time of their wedding, half a century ago. The golden wedding anniversary is today.

REACH GOLDEN MILESTONE IN PATHS OF USEFULNESS.

THE golden anniversary of a wedding ceremony performed in Cape May, N. J., October 27, 1867, will be celebrated at the home of Superior Judge John W. Shenk, No. 1425 Laurel street, South Pasadena, this afternoon. The happy couple are his parents, Rev. J. W. Shenk and Mrs. Susanna C. Shenk, the former 75 and the latter 73 years old. The four sons and the two daughters will gather under the roof tree to offer their congratulations.

Not only does God promise you salvation on the grounds that you repent and accept Christ, but He offers you eternal life as a gift. Not a thing that you can earn, but salvation on the grounds of your acceptance of Jesus Christ as your Savior. He has promised to give you a home in which to spend eternity.

In Nebraska for more than five years and was a member of the General Executive Committee of the Topeka branch of the society at Kansas City in 1892.

Rev. Mr. Shenk was licensed as a Troy conference, 1878-81, and is a member of the Nebraska, North Nebraska and California conference. He is a graduate of the Garrett Biblical Institute, Northwestern University, 1885, with the degree of B.D. In 1887, to presiding elder of the ministry to South America. From 1886 to 1887 he was junior pastor of the M. E. Church at Buenos Aires.

His sons and daughters are Rev. William W. Shenk, Ph.D., Globe, Ariz.; Edmond S. Shenk, P.S., Los Angeles; Judge John W. Shenk; Adolphus H. Shenk, California; Mrs. Mary M. Wilson, wife of Henry C. Wilson, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Hemet, and Mrs. Sue C. Shenk, Angler in the San Gabriel public school.

Contracts Signed.

LOWER FREIGHT RATES TO MEXICO PROMISED.

CHEAPER freight rates between Los Angeles Harbor and other Pacific Coast ports and Mexico, and a new service for carrying government mail will allow the contract signed between the Gulf Mail Steamship Company and the Department of Communications and Public Works of Mexico, according to a telegraphic dispatch received by the company's representatives here yesterday.

The steamship company, under the terms of its contract, is pledged to place in operation three steamships between United States Pacific Coast ports and Mexico. The company operates, among others, the steamers San Gabriel and the San Pedro.

It is asserted by Fernando Serrano, general manager of the Mexican Pacific Brokerage Company, the company's Los Angeles representatives, that the new contract will open up the untold resources of the West Coast of Mexico. A schedule of sailings for the next several months will be ready in a few days for the use of shippers.

is no glamor left in war. He told of the amazing work the women are doing behind the battlefront, building the bus for the men, driving the motor lorries, even digging trenches and performing all manner of hard manual labor. And he asked his listeners if those now so reluctantly let their sons go to war were prepared to have the women of France and England fight their battles for them. When the sergeant left to keep another engagement, everyone rose as a tribute to his sincerity.

Dr. Willie Goodsell of Columbia University also spoke on numerous current questions—freedom of speech, the stars and high rates among college women, and other subjects. The doctor, by the way, is a woman in spite of her name.

Max Weizorek, the portrait painter, was also a luncheon guest and talked briefly on art.

WOMEN'S WORK. WOMEN'S CLUBS.

It seemed like pre-war days at the Friday Morning Club yesterday with Eugene Neuhaus, artist and member of that long-past art jury of San Francisco, expounding, talking mildly on public taste and artist's ideals, and the shortcomings of dear old Dame Nature, and shyly mentioning his own works that hang upon the club walls.

But we got back to the war again when Sergt. C. Rayner of the Scottish-Canadians, who has suffered and experienced all things in the war, even to the loss of one of his own sons only a week ago, talked at the luncheon. The sergeant had come equipped with his gas mask and numerous war trophies and brought the scene of carnage home very vividly to his hearers. His demonstration of the gas mask was quite terrifying and realistic—surely there

FRIVOLS.

NEW TRIANGLE PLAYS.

By Grace Kingsley.

With the moving in of the Triangle-Keystone comedies at Culver City, the big white studio proceeds apace with its improvements. New glass stages sufficient to accommodate a score of companies in rainy weather have been, or will be, built, and at present dressing-room row with its huge tiers of rooms new and old, is nearly all occupied. Laboratories likewise are being enlarged, and many sets are being erected for forthcoming productions.

Three new pictures have been started, four are in various courses of construction, and five directors have finished their offerings and are waiting for stories.

The scenario department is working under full steam on some of the finest stories obtainable, including stories from the Saturday Evening Post and other high-class publications, and the triangle productions from the West in the coming weeks promise to include many of unusual interest.

The large stock company at Culver City is being noticeably increased, several new people having been engaged during the past two weeks, and Casting Director Arthur Hoyt declares he has engaged several "dark horses" who may yet be numbered among the reigning favorites of the films. Thus several new plays of unusual promise will make their initial appearance with Triangle in the production season to be cast.

Jack Dillon is handling the megaphone on Olive Thomas's latest story, "Betty Takes a Hand," by Katherine Kavanaugh, one of the prize-winning stories in a recent magazine contest. Director Lynn Reynolds has begun work on the picture of Earl Derr Bessie's Saturday Evening Post story, "Each According to His Gifts," under the life of "The Gown of Destiny."

In this will appear Herra Tejedda, a French actor engaged especially for the play. Raymond Wells is busy on the preliminary work for his next story, "The Man Above the Law," by Lanier Bartlett, dealing with the Navajo Indians. E. Wilson in "Without Honor," Jack Conway is making "Because of the Women" starring Belle Bennett and Alma Reubens is being starred in "The Passing Flower," with Walter Edwards directing. Director Frank Borzage has been working for the past few days at Hartville, in "Until They Get Me," a frontier story. The five directors who are presently working on new pictures are Smith, G. F. Hamilton, Thomas N. Heffron, Ferris Hartman and Wyndham Gittens.

Doug Deparis.

Douglas Fairbanks, with his new director, Allan Dwan, and a company of people who have been working for the Grand Canyon, where the first scenes of a new picture will be staged.

In the picture will appear an unusually noteworthy cast, including Frank Campeau, Tully Marshall, Eugene Ormonde, James Neill and others.

Viola Work.

Viola Dana, the dainty Metro star, will at once begin work on "The Winding Trail," with John Collins directing.

This is Miss Dana's first visit to California, and the many Oh's and Ah's that punctuated her first hours in Los Angeles indicate that this visit will become permanent.

Love My Country.

No more valiant service has been given the Liberty Bond drive by a group of people than those active in the pictures. In Long Beach last Wednesday night, a record-breaking crowd was assembled by the offer of five $50 bonds, which were given to those who attended the patriotic rally. Two of these bonds were contributed by Roscoe Arbuckle, while H. M. Horkheimer, president of the Balboa studio, gave the other three. An amount in excess of $100,000 was subscribed for bonds, more than half of which was signed for by Balboans. Some of the largest subscriptions were made by "Papa" Arbuckle, who purchased $20,000; H. M. Horkheimer, $10,000; E. D. Horkheimer, $10,000; Saunders, $7,000; Lou Anger, $5,000, and Herbert Warren, $5,000.

Intensive Training Note.

Just to help his wife while away the weary hours of her enforced retirement, Seymour Tully took some film from the Hawaiian scene which he is showing at his theater this week, and one of those small projection machines, up to the hospital where Mrs. Tully and the infant Tully are waiting for the word to go home.

The film was shown for Mrs. Tully's benefit, whereupon, at the close of the exhibition, Mr. Tully insists that his son clapped his hands just like a regular audience.

Reversion to Type.

The war is tough on these German comedians. Now it's Milt Collins, famous on the Orpheum circuit as the "Speaker of the House," who has discarded his German make-up and accent, and is now introducing a new monologue in plain English. He says there's nothing funny about Germany any more, except the Kaiser's declaration that he will win the war and everybody knows that's a joke.

Sounds Reasonable.

Clarence Drown, Orpheum manager, was one of the theatrical directors who was asked to substitute plaster of Paris armatures for real food. Later somebody wrote and asked him:

"Have you found a substitute for food that is satisfactory?"

"No," wrote back Drown, "I never have. Even in the days when I owned only one actor and dined at a 25-cent house, I never found a satisfactory substitute for real food."

Enough to Scare Anybody.

It was during the filming of "Who is Number One?" by Balboa, and a small negro boy stood near, while close beside him stood a queer conglomerate of machinery used in one of the scenes, "Laws, Miss," commanded, "what-am I am dare I do?"

"That," laughed Miss Clifford, "why, that's an ophthalmometer."

The boy gazed at it again. Then his legs stretched.

"Dat's jes' what Ah was afraid

Kathleen Comegys, Vivacious ingenue of "The Thirtieth Chair," who will be seen at the Mason this week.

Bertha Mann Returns.

That Bertha Mann returns to the Morosco next Sunday afternoon in "The Silent Witness," a play of strong dramatic interest, will be good news to her scores of admirers in this city. Many theater parties are being made up to greet her.

A New Rabe.

A sequel to "The Rube," Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Barrow, a sandy and vaudeville for several seasons, is now being presented in the East by this favorite comedy team. The new act is called "The Burglar," and although the Barrows still retain their rube and actress characters, the material is entirely new. They are hopeful of introducing it to their Orpheum friends before long.

Cupid Note.

Herbert Warren, chief of the scenario department of the "Fatty" Arbuckle company, with headquarters at the Balboa studio, is one of the happiest of men these days. Mr. Warren recently was married to Valerie Berger, the original "Mme. Butterfly" on the legitimate stage, which was put on by David Belasco, and the two are enjoying a honeymoon in a cosy Long Beach bungalow.

Lou Anger, who is associated with Mr. Warren in the scenario department, shortly to be seen at Quinn's, is at work on a new five-reel vehicle for Mr. Arbuckle entitled "A Country Hero," in which the famous comedian will be supported by Alice Lake, Al St. John, Buster Keaton and "Luke."

Mabel Normand Soon.

Mabel Normand's first Goldwyn picture, shortly to be seen at Quinn's, is called "The Girl in the Moon," which has undergone a change in title. It is now called "Joan of Plattsburg."

SAFETY FIRST.
Constantine has refused to sing the German opera, "Lohengrin," although he was booked to perform the selection at Shrine Auditorium. Who can blame him?
The public is doing without many things heretofore made in Germany, and it will work no great hardship on anybody to dispense with German music.

VERY LITTLE CHANGE.
Eighteen nations, representing three-fourths of the population of the world, are now engaged in fighting Kaiserism. And every few days a new nation enters the field for democracy and civilization against the savagery of Kultur. If there is a possibility of God entirely forgetting the beautiful world that He evidently intended for the happiness of mankind, then Germany may yet achieve a glorious victory.

PAYING PATRIOTISM.
John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has resigned his office as chief of the striking slackers and accepted a job as "adviser" to Dr. H. A.
Garfield, National Fuel Commissioner.
Whether his services as an "adviser" will secure a higher salary than that which he received as a misadviser is not stated. Patriotism pays better sometimes in cash, as well as in solid comfort, than slackness.
However, we don't believe in buying it.

WANTED, A CHANCELOR.
There is one faction of the German people supporting Kuehlmann and another faction pulling for Buelow to succeed Michaelis, the supporters of each claiming that their favorite favors an early peace and greater liberty for the people. Apparently neither man would satisfy all of the people. It is pretty safe to assume that the Kaiser will not favor for Chancellor any man who really desires to liberate the people. William seems to be up a stump.
What he wants to do and what he may be able to do are two different things.

THE SACRIFICE.
A soldier of the United States Army lies dead in New York as a result of having given of his blood to save the life of a humble peanut vender. This soldier's sacrifice is a shining example of the spirit that animates members of the National Army, who are offering their lives upon the altar of their country, ready to live and be silent, to fight or to die for each and every inhabitant of this lovely land. It is the only way to preserve the nation and the life and liberty of every individual in it—and American manhood has not been found wanting.

CALIFORNIA'S FUTURE.
In the Pantheon of the Nations, California—"that soft, round, poetic bundle of voluptuous sensibility that bankrupted nature in the making"—reposes upon a couch of gold-adorned mountains and general-breasted valleys, and faces the soft wash of a summer sea that is seldom storm-swept and on whose bosom, even from Nome to the Antipodes, no iceberg ever floated.

We lack one advantage that is possessed by the people of the East. We have no California to go to. There is no promised land for us. We are in the promised land already. We cannot pack our Laredo and Penates and with them journey toward the sunset, for we are living in its affluent beams.

It has been well said that a dwarf in this century seems more than a giant of bygone days, for the dwarf is perched upon the shoulders of all the giants of all the ages.
Jude gave us the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount and the doctrine that, as all men are equal in the sight of God, so ought all men to be equal before the law.
Artistic taste, a love of the beautiful, the true in art and the scientific method of reasoning which shrivels sophistry to nothingness, we inherited from Athens. From Rome we got our concrete logic and the theory and practice of our legislation. From England we got the best of our literature, the wisest of our laws and—
"The selfsame tongue
That Milton wrote, that Chatham spoke
And Burns and Shakespeare sung."

California has had fires and floods and earthquakes—but never pestilence. Her people have had mutations of fortune, but the individual efforts of every man to get on in life have built up the aggregate wealth faster than any calamity or any season of depression could deplete it.

The light of civilization, which originated in the Far East, has, after crossing four continents in its journey of 6000 years, reached the sea which divides from the portals of its starting point. With the wisdom which civilization has gathered in its journey it stands ready to repay Asia with interest for the truths which Confucius preached when our Saxon ancestors were drinking blood out of the skulls of their enemies.

We stand midway between the East and the West—the interpreter between the old and the new, the living and the dead. The Orient and the Occident exchange their products at our market. Not merely the products of loom and forge and soil, but the precious products of thought. Hail to the reign of high endeavor. We are its proprietary, its priests, its kings and its benefactors.

ON TO BERLIN.
The Germans are reeling back. They are running. They are leaving their guns.
German prisoners are being taken by the thousands—taken in such numbers as to indicate that they are at last growing sick of war and would rather be the well-fed captives of the British and French than the "brave defenders of the Fatherland." No doubt the rout has been translated into German as a "strategic retreat," another word of Hindenburg's strokes of military wizardry. Perhaps he is "drawing the enemy on."

Anyhow, the French and British are smashing through. Day after day it is the same story, only during the last few days it has been a bigger story. All the pro-German bosh about the war being a state-mate, about the German lines being unbroken and unbreakable, about the Allies being on the verge of a breakdown, has blown up. It is slow and steady and work. Certainly it is. This thing of driving out an entrenched force is tedious as pulling carpet tacks with the teeth. The German hosts, in the height of their confidence and power, long before France was in fighting trim, were halted and held as soon as the French dug themselves in. Now they are digging the Germans out.

The Germans are in retreat out of Russia.
Their greatly wanted drive against the Russians turned into a fiasco, and from all other fronts troops are being concentrated on the western front to check the furious onslaughts of the French and British. They go over the top in deadly seal to come to grips with Teuton hordes and give them the cold steel. The Germans were brave and pompous and strutting and posed when they followed the disorganized retreat of the Belgians and French, shot civilians by the wholesale, raped women and butchered children, fired villages and bombarded cathedral. But they will not stand in a hand-to-hand fight with men. How can they?
The hardened Poldi strikes for home and country, for the outraged women of his land; and Gen. Pershing, who saw the battle at Soissons, reported Thursday that the German dead lay in heaps, and prisoners numbered 9000. And that was the beginning of Peta's hurricane drive that has continued for 100 hours and goes on, with each hour swelling the computed German dead and announcing increased number of prisoners. Approximately 45,000 men have been killed among the Germans since Monday, when the fighting became desperate along the Aisne.

No one outside of the inner military circles knows precisely what Haig and Peta have in mind. But they have developed a marvelous attack. All along the front from Ostend to the extreme of the Aisne Valley the big guns roar incessantly. So far they have gained four miles of depth, within a week, at the most crucial point in the Hindenburg line. Apparently the attack is designed to pierce the German communication lines, turn the flank at Roulers and isolate the German submarine bases at Ostend.

And what do the Germans say of these victories? They have not peeped since Wednesday, and then announced that the reserves had "halted" the "thrust." Halted—indeed! That "thrust" will be halted at Berlin if the Kaiser does not sue for peace. For months the Allies have not sue for peace. For months the Allies have not sue for peace. For months the Allies have Certainly! And of those which we stock in our very complete Motor Robe Section we recommend in particular Chase Motor Robes.

MONEY MARKET EASES AS LOAN CAMPAIGN WINDS UP

Dull Wall-street Market Due to Division of Speculative Sentiment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The irregular course of today's dollar market indicated as much as anything a division of speculative sentiment, based, in all probability, upon the recent growth of the short interest.

Pressure against rails relaxed somewhat, but not before liquidation had set standard shares, notably Canadian Pacific and Northern Pacific, one to two points under their minimums of several years and prompted fresh liquidation of Union Pacific, Pennsylvania and Reading.

Substantial buying of these stocks soon effected a marked readjustment, after which aggressive bear drives were made against the less active securities and utilities. General Electric made an extreme decline of 5 3/4 points, Western Union 2 1/4 and American Telephone 3 3/4.

Steele reflected the uncertain trend, moving within 1 to 2 point limits, but hardened later with railroads, but gained 1/2 of a point and related issues rallied more or less irregularly from lowest levels.

Shipments and copper afforded the basis of much early promise, but the former dropped back abruptly. Atlantic Gulf made an extreme reaction of five points on the failure of the directors to declare an expected "extra" dividend. Marine rose briskly towards the end, however, the preferred closing at a net advance of 1 point. Sales aggregated $10,000,000.

The whirlwind wind-up of the Liberty Loan campaign contributed MYSTERY TRIPS END IN DEATH.

Bullet from Behind Kills Desert Prospector.

Soldier Companion Guides a Posse to Jewels.

Conferences Held Here are Clues for Officers.

The mysterious trips of Matthew Howell into the desert may be solved by an investigation of his death as the result of a gunshot wound in his back. The remains arrived in this city yesterday in charge of a posse from Arizona, and Deputy Sheriff Fox and Nolan were assigned to the case, at the request of the Department of the Interior.

Mr. Howell was shot and fatally wounded last Wednesday. He was brought to the Apache Indian agency at Wilcox, Ariz., by William Hunt, a soldier in the regular army, who was held by Charles W. Davis, superintendent of the agency, on suspicion of having fired the shot. Mr. Howell requested that a posse be sent to his home, No. 605 Garnet street, Redondo Beach.

The frequent trips of Mr. Howell into Arizona made him familiar to government employees, and he was known to the Arizona deserters. He always traveled alone in a small car, and was well armed. Because of his frequent trips into the desert, he was known to the Arizona deserters.

Woman Who is Charged with Mail Fraud Conspiracy.

In spite of a strong appeal, United States Commissioner Hammack yesterday refused to release Mrs. Jessie A. Chan on her own recognizance on the Federal grand jury's charge of conspiring to use the mails to defraud. She fixed her bail at $500, while that of her alleged fellow conspirator, William M. Price, alias Dr. Caborn, was set at $1000. Chan was committed to the County Jail in default of bail.

VERDICT IN FRAUD CASE IS SUSTAINED.

APPELLATE COURT SCORES
THE ALLEGED SWINDLE.

Evidence Shows a Barred Scheme to Defraud Working Girl of Her Savings. Declares Higher Body—Accused is Now Serving Sentence at San Quentin.

Superior Judge McCormick was yesterday notified that the Appellate Court had sustained his sentence in the case of R. B. Rogers, accused of obtaining money under false and fraudulent pretenses from two working girls in the supposed purchase of a rooming-house.

The decision of the higher court says that "the swindle as planned and carried out was without shadow of excuse or palliating circumstance." "The evidence presented in the trial court," continues the Appellate Court, "and brought here under the alternative method of appeal, tells a convincing story of the consummation of a barefaced scheme by which a working girl was defrauded of her savings to the amount of $600."

At the trial it was shown that two young women, Mary Edwards and Florence James, seeking to rent a rooming-house, sought the endorsement of Rogers. He accepted $400 from them, and supposedly turned over to them a rooming-house which, it later developed, he had no right to do. Rogers was convicted before Judge McCormick and given an indeterminate sentence at San Quentin. He appealed on technical grounds, with a reversal as announced yesterday.

UPLAND KEEPS UP GOOD WORK.

Over-subscribes Liberty Loan Quota; Also Leads in Red Cross Work.

Upland went over the top yesterday for the Liberty Loan by over-subscribing its quota by nearly $22,000. The total is $120,000; the allotment was $98,000. As Upland has, roughly, 1000 population, this means something over $100 subscribed for every man, woman and child in the city.

In addition, Upland subscribed $75,000 to the first Liberty Loan, while her per capita contribution to the Red Cross fund was only second to that of Phoenix, the premier city of the West.

The good work accomplished for the second loan was the result of a house-to-house canvass by a picked committee.

Loan Campaign.

now when the time for the making of the purchase comes the bonds can be used in lieu of cash. "We are not contemplating making the bonds into currency, for it would be unreasonable to expect that a man or woman could take a $50 bond into a store and purchase $5 worth of goods and have the merchant give $45 in change. There is not a house in the city that could do this for any length of time. Most of the big mercantile establishments have bought heavily of the bonds on their private and corporate accounts, but in the face of this they are willing to take a reasonable amount of the bonds for merchandise so as to encourage the people to buy with their savings."

There are doubtless many persons who will buy bonds with their savings because of this liberal offer by the merchants, and that is the sole purpose of these merchants in agreeing to take the bonds. They know they are the best security on earth and they want to help educate the people into the same belief. As a matter of fact, I may say right here that the wider distribution of these bonds have among the people, the better it will be for the nation, for it will give every man who owns a bond a personal and financial stake in the government."

SCHOOL DOES WELL.

The total Liberty Bond subscription taken by the Los Angeles High School was $145,000, the largest secured by any one school. Miss Oliver's classroom pupils led the school by selling $117,000 worth of bonds. Raymond Wilson sold fifty-three bonds and William Giffert secured $18,000 worth. The sale of the bonds was managed by Principal Hough, Vice-Principal Oliver and Paul Goldschmidt, student body president.

Supt. Shields sent a letter of congratulation to the students. With a membership of 156 persons, Royal Oak Lodge, No. 220, Order Sons of St. George, yesterday reported $16,000 in subscriptions to the Liberty Loan. "Many of our members are repeaters, having subscribed to the first loan," said J. D. Green and Thomas White, who are in charge of the loan.

Pacific Electric Railway employees have subscribed $250,000 among themselves to the loan.

The Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, as executor of the estate of Eugene Duffell, invested today in $40,000 worth of Liberty Bonds. This is in addition to the subscription of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank of $11,000 in 1909. The bank will make a special drive today to secure more subscriptions from the general public.

The better business bureau of the Advertising Club of Los Angeles yesterday announced through C. M. C. Raymond, secretary, that it had a survey from the Advertising Club of San Francisco that the story to be belittled Los Angeles with state complaints about the lack of patriotism in subscribing for Liberty Bonds is false.

Roosevelt Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, yesterday authorized its treasurer to subscribe for $1000 worth of the bonds of the second Liberty Loan.

Council Hears Arguments Against Ordinance.

With a rally and banquet at Hamburger's cafe yesterday noon, the campaign to abolish saloons in Los Angeles, the special election for which has been set for November 20, was formally launched. A large number of women were present, as well as representatives of many business interests.

C. A. De Coo, president of the City Lumber Company, acted as toastmaster, and Mrs. Chester A. Ashby, president of the Ebell Club, was sponsor for the women. Mrs. Catherine Leighton, sister of Mayor Woodman, was appointed head of the precinct workers and Mrs. John Butler, wife of the Chief of Police, was enrolled as an assistant.

COUNCILMEN PRESENT.

Four of the City Councilmen—Reeves, Conaway, Cleaveland and Mallard—were present and pledged their votes to the cause. Addresses were made by A. J. Wallace, Dr. Charles Edward Locke, Mrs. Wilhelmina Rodman and Mrs. Edwin Hill.

Others who were "mobilized" were Mrs. Frederick Stith, Mrs. C. E. Noel, Mrs. Elizabeth McManis, who announced that the first precinct meeting will be held at her home, No. 1254 Carroll avenue, on Monday night; Mrs. Cora Gibson, president of the local Entre Nous Club; Mrs. Olive A. Ellis, Mrs. J. D. Taylor, Mrs. C. J. Lawrence, Mrs. G. H. Clark and Mrs. Katherine Pierce Wheat.

The first argument in connection with the anti-saloon election was presented to the City Council yesterday morning by Edwin F. Wehrle. It was in opposition to the so-called Gandler ordinance and contains nearly 2000 words. Mr. Wehrle represents the United California Industries and the Brewers' and Bottlers' Association.

TWO ARGUMENTS.

The City Attorney informed the Council that two arguments, one for and one against each proposition that is to be voted upon, will be accepted by the Council and that the City Clerk will mail them to the voters not later than ten days before the election. No argument shall contain more than 2000 words. The printing of the arguments must be paid for by those presenting them.

Various organizations are still endeavoring to get the Council to postpone the date of the special election from November 20 to early in December, but apparently without hope of success. Yesterday the matter was brought before the Council again. It being the fifth time the Councilmen have been compelled to vote on the question. They turned down the requests by a vote of 5 to 4.

SEE SANATORIUM SITE.

County and State Officials Visit Proposed Location of Hospital for Tuberculosis Patients.

The first steps in the construction of the tuberculosis sanatorium in the San Fernando Valley were taken yesterday when a committee visited the site one mile from Sylmar to plan for the buildings and select the number of rooms desired to house patients. Mrs. E. L. M. Thompson, a director of the State Bureau of Tuberculosis, came down from San Francisco and accompanied Supervisors Dodge and McClellan, N. R. Martin, county superintendent of charities; Dr. William Kloft, county counsel; William Davidson, chief mechanical engineer, and others to Sylmar on the inspection trip.

Ventura and Santa Barbara counties have joined with Los Angeles county in the sanatorium scheme by liberal contributions. The State will also provide a bonus of $3 a week for each patient treated at the sanatorium.

MOOSE CASE UP.

Supreme Court Hears Arguments in Appeal, Involving Furnishings of Local Lodgeroom.

Arguments in the locally famous case of the Supreme Lodge of the World, Loyal Order of Moose, against Los Angeles Lodge, No. 386, were heard yesterday in Department Two of the Supreme Court, on an appeal from the judgment of Superior Judge Welborn.

The complaint of the Supreme Lodge of the World was that the local lodge should forfeit personal property, used in the furnishing of the local lodge, the damages at $550, and ordered the redelivery of the property to that organization. If the delivery of the paraphernalia was not possible, he ordered the local lodge to pay $18,118 in lieu thereof.

The contention between the local and supreme bodies of the Order of Moose was a bitter one, and the latter organization revoked the charter of the Los Angeles chapter for alleged insubordination. The findings were in favor of Lodge No. 386.

Both Department Two and Department One of the Supreme Court cleaned up the calendar of the day in quick order, yesterday, and adjourned until Monday, when the October term will come to an end.

AUTOIST HELD FOR FAILURE TO AID.

Justice Palmer yesterday held for trial L. Shedenhelm, charged with failing to stop and render aid to A. F. Peering, of No. 230 East Forty-fifth street, after his auto had knocked Mr. Peering down. His bail was fixed at $300.

NAME OF STREET CHANGED.

By unanimous vote yesterday the Council enacted an ordinance changing the name of Serrano street, from sixteenth street, to Washington street, to Westmoreland boulevard. Councilman Chiswell said he believed either Westmoreland boulevard or Westmoreland avenue should be changed, owing to the confusion that inasmuch as Westmoreland boulevard was named several years prior to the venue that it was left by him. Supreme Body Reverses Ruling of Superior Judge.

Birth Followed Awarding of Decree to the Father.

Laying down the doctrine that the law is not willing that a child shall be declared illegitimate to suit the whim or purpose of either parent, the State Supreme Court yesterday reversed the judgment of Superior Judge Wilbur, in the matter of the distribution of the estate of Cornelius Walker, a piano dealer formerly in business at No. 510 West Ninth street. An estate of about $21,000 is involved.

Walker was married January 1, 1912, and died November 13, 1912. At the time of his death he had not lived with his wife for about four years. On November 8, 1911, a property settlement was made between them, and on January 10, 1912, the wife brought an action for divorce on the ground of desertion, but the suit was discontinued.

Then, on April 8, 1913, the husband sued the wife for divorce, alleging desertion. The wife defaulted, and Mr. Walker was granted an interlocutory decree July 13, 1913. On April 11, 1914, the divorced wife gave birth to twin sons, Earl and Edward. On the death of Mr. Walker, Mabel A. Nason, a daughter by a former wife, was appointed administratrix of the estate, and it being claimed that the twin sons were not the legitimate sons of Cornelius Walker, the entire estate was given her. The subject of the controversy revolved around the question of whether the twin sons were the lawful heirs of the deceased Walker. The Supreme Court holds that they were, and that they are entitled to the entire estate left by him. The court states that, while Walker and his wife technically did not

I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my house work. I will always praise Lydia E.
